OBITUARY. Elizabeth Chadwick Ely. fine weather and have begun to plow and plant early vegetables. Mrs. Jane Laurenson and daughter. Elizabeth Chadwick, widow of Dr. Joseph Griffin Ely, an eminent physi-cian and surgeon, in early life of Chicago, Ili., and later of Lyme, died at her home in Old Lyme Monday morning, March 29, after a long illness of navalysis. She belonged to one of the oldest and most prominent Old Lyme families, being the daughter of the late Capt. John Mather and Ursula Raymond Chadwick. Her father, Capt. Mather Chadwick, was one of the disinguished masters of the early packet ships plying between New York and foreign parts. Mrs. Ely was a lady of culture and refinement, an accomplish-ed musician, the practice of which she kept up from early youth to declining years. Her familiarity with the best literature and keen sense of humor coupled with acute observation, gavto her conversation a polish exceeled by few. The brief funeral rites were held Thursday afternoon, April 1, at her residence, the date being the 23d auniversary of her husband's death, Rev. Mr. Chapman, pastor of the Old Lyme Congressional church official. Mrs. Frank Swanny of South Lyme is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles, Lyme Congregational church, officiat-ed. The floral tributes in number and beautiy testified mutely to the love and esteem in which she was held by those near and dear to her. She is survived by one son, the present Dr. Josiah G. Ely of Lyme, and five daughters, Mrs. Nathan Hall of Preston, Mrs.
